

October 17, 2011

Dear Masters and Instructors:

It is our great pleasure to announce an exciting weekend of TaeKwon-Do to be held March 16, 17, and 18 in Houston, Texas. The weekend will begin with a Master Class taught by ITF President Choi, Jung Hwa on Saturday followed by the 2012 ITF World Championship USA Qualifier and the Gateway National Invitational Tournament on Sunday. This event is hosted by The Phoenix Group and organized by Junbi Now, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization dedicated to TaeKwon-Do excellence.

Tournament proceeds over and above expenses from the event will be used to offset specified Team USA expenses for the 2012 ITF World Championships in Ottawa, Canada. Funding will be allocated in the following order as proceeds allow:

1. Travel expenses of both United States INO Presidents
2. Airfare of the two designated Team USA Judges
3. Incidental administrative expenses for Team USA

It is the mission and purpose of Junbi Now to support the development and practice of TaeKwon-Do. Utilizing proceeds of this tournament and instructional course gives our World Championship competitors an opportunity to foster international respect and goodwill while fulfilling their dreams of competing internationally.

Our website, www.junbinow.com, has all airport, hotel, tournament, seminar and registration information. If you have any other questions, please email Master William Howard of the Phoenix Group (howardtkd@sbcglobal.net) or Mrs. Tish Otten of Junbi Now (president@junbinow.com).

We look forward to your participation.

Sincerely,

Master John Tompkins, VIII Dan
Phoenix Group President

Tish Otten
Junbi Now President